

NEWS RELEASE

For immediate Release

October 14, 2008

Contact

Deb Harsche, Executive Director
Dunn County Fair Association
701-260-1081 or
Vicki Pennington, Director
Hilltop Heritage Foundation
701-764-5682

Wealth Transfer/Preservation Presentation Planned

Public is invited to attend this event

A presentation on wealth transfer/preservation entitled “It’s All in the Planning” is scheduled for Wednesday, October 29, 2008, at 6:00 pm (MST). The public is invited to attend this planning session at the Buckskin Meeting Room in Killdeer, North Dakota.

The Wealth Transfer/Preservation Presentation will provide strategies and suggestions on how individuals can fortify their estate plans, ensuring security for families and descendants.

Nathan Sorenson, CPA, Reichert Fisher PC of Dickinson, North Dakota; Rich Hinkle, Consultant for Farmers Union Insurance of Fargo, North Dakota; and Mike Kiedrowski, Fundraising Consultant, MJK Consulting of Dickinson, North Dakota will each present valuable processes in financial planning goal setting strategies.

“This information will be very timely for year-end tax preparations. Everyone is invited,” stated Vicki Pennington, Hilltop Heritage Foundation Director.

Supper will be served promptly at 6:00 pm MST and will be followed by the wealth transfer/preservation presentation. The evening is sponsored by the Hilltop Heritage Foundation, Dunn County Fair Association and Farmers Union Insurance.

For more information please contact Vicki Pennington at 701-764-5682 or Deb Harsche at 701-260-1081.

###